8th Conference of the European Lactation Consultants Alliance ELACTA, November 2-3, 2012 in Copenhagen

g r o w i n g together

ELACTA European Lactation Consultants Alliance (formerly VELB European Lactation Consultant Association)
Lactation consultants, midwives, nurses, doctors and anybody else interested in breastfeeding and lactation are invited to join the 8th Conference of ELACTA in Copenhagen, Denmark

Take the opportunity to present your experiences and research around topics related to human lactation and breastfeeding. Deadline for submitting abstracts or posters is the 15th of December 2011.

A pre-conference on November 1, 2012 will focus on more practical issues and discussions. This pre-conference will take place at the WHO, Regional Office for Europe, Copenhagen.
Register early and get the possibility to visit maternity hospitals or health visitors in municipalities in the Copenhagen area (limited attendance).
